| 10 | 8 | Junior U. S. | |

Note.—The rate of scholarships tenable in High School classes in the Vani-Vilasa Institute, Bangalore, is Rs. 12 and 8 per mensem to non-resident and resident pupils of Bangalore City respectively.

2. Only Mysoreans by birth or domicile are eligible for these scholarships. Students of the Maharani's High School, Mysore, are not eligible for these scholarships as there are separate scholarships attached to that institution.

3. One-third of the number of scholarships shall be awarded on the ground of merit, one-third on grounds of poverty combined with diligence and the remaining scholarships shall be set apart for pupils from classes that are backward in Education. If any of these scholarships remain unutilised they may be made available to other pupils in the same standard without these restrictions. When all the available scholarships are not utilised in the classes for which they are intended, it is left to the discretion of the Inspector-General of Education to transfer them to other classes.

4. In awarding the scholarships the applicants who were in receipt of scholarships last year shall be preferred to the applicants for fresh scholarships, provided they had been promoted to the next higher class.

5. The scholarships will be tenable for the school year from the beginning of June 1921 to the end of May 1922. The list of scholarship-holders will be revised by the Inspector-General at the beginning of each academical year.

6. During the year of tenure, the head of the institution in which the girl is studying, may, in consultation with the School Committee, withhold the whole or any portion of her scholarship for irregular attendance, unsatisfactory progress or bad conduct, reporting the fact at once to the Inspectress who will send a consolidated list to the Inspector-General of Education at the beginning of every succeeding month for orders.

7. The scholarships tenable in Government schools shall be drawn on the monthly establishment bills of the schools concerned, but those of aided institutions shall be drawn on bills signed by the Heads of the institutions concerned, and countersigned by the Inspectress.
